

Brendan Clarke:

Grad.dip.Mus(ANU)

Brendan is one of Australia's best young jazz bass players having performed with many leading Australian and international musicians such as Don Burrows, Julian Lee, Dale Barlow, Bernie McGann, Mike Nock, George Golla and James Morrison.

Brendan has worked for several years as a member of the Fair Princess

Orchestra and The Enormous Horns.

He is currently a member of such well-known Sydney jazz ensembles as the Lily Dior Band, the Bobby Gebert Trio and The Blaine Whittaker

Quartet. In a recent review SMH Jazz critic John Shand had this to say: "Clarke's ensemble playing was supple and propulsive and his potential was shown by the concision, relevance and pugnacity of his improvising." 10/7/00

Sam Rollings:

M.A.Mus(ANU)

Sam has worked with many of Australia's leading jazz musicians including, James Morrison, Dale Barlow and George Golla as well as performing with other leading artists such as Marina Prior, Rob Guest and James Blundell.

Overseas performances include the Monterey Jazz Festival as well as appearances at many Australian festivals. He currently lives in Sydney and is a successful free-lance musician performing with bands like The Enormous Horns as well as leading his own ensembles

Murray Jackson:

Grad.dip.Mus (ANU):

Ass.dip.Arranging (Sydney)

Murray has had a wide range of professional experience from cruise ships to leading his own Jazz sextet ("Alto saxophonist, Murray Jackson, plays superbly with his 60'ish Hard Bop Band" John Clare, SMH 15/10/99).

He has studied jazz performance at the Australian National University and composition and arranging at the NSW Conservatorium and now teaches a Jazz performance class at the University of Technology.

Last year he was the winner of the prestigious Jazz Action Society new composition award. Murray has many years of performance behind him and has played with artists as diverse as Trout fishing in Quebec and Dale Barlow..
