

No Dramas

No Dramas is a new Melbourne Coverband with experienced musicians banding together to make up the No Dramas team. This awesomely talented band, will have crowds all over Melbourne thoroughly enjoying themselves to the max, with the sounds that this Coverband has to offer.

Lead Singer, we have Luke (Jacko) Djakovic, he was the lead singer of rising band part time band 'One Hard Nut'. Luke brings an awesome amount of talent to the table. His appeal on stage is one of the best in the business. Along with appeal and talent, Luke has a huge set list of over 100 songs, in the mould of Punk Rock like Green Day and Blink 182, Pop songs of today, like Matchbox 20 and the Killers, Rock songs from artists such as Bon Jovi, Cold Chisel and does much much more with relative precision. His friendliness sets him apart from the rest, he has the most 'easy going' nature of anyone going around, and he can play all the instruments on the stage. Oh and wait for his harmonica solo, it is a treat.

Lead Guitar, we have Andrew (Riggo) Riggo, who has an enormous amount of experience, which he gained through his days back in AC/DC coverband 'Dirty Deeds'. Since this band split, Riggo has being an excellent entertainer in his one, two and three piece work. His ear for sound is the best in the business, as he has a plethora of experience in the recording field, recording some pretty quality known musicians. Riggo's works in perfect harmony with Jacko on stage, to give the crowd exactly what they want, works a treat!! And if his guitar sounds don't gets the crowds blood pumping, they may just need blood transfusions.

Back up Guitar, we have Peron (Pez) Lan. Now this guy is an absolute find. When it came to selecting a guitarist to compliment the band, his solos are mind blowing, and his general performance is tight as we need to become the best coverband in Melbourne. Hails from Tasmania, where he played to crowds that all got in on one family pass. Lucky for Melbourne, he has decided to move where the night clubs don't shut before 9pm. ☺ Sorry that's quiet enuff. Tassie has provided this astounding artist so they can't be that bad. But big things move from Tassie, and this gifted talent has done just that.

Drums, you have Dave (Stales) Staley. Dave has a crowd appeal that contradicts his nickname. He is far from stale, when he rocks up the crowd with his awesome drum solos. He is young, energetic and single, for all you girls out there ☺. Stales goes from strength to strength in each performance, mainly due to the fact that he loves to entertain, and entertain he does.

Backup Drums, we have Brett (Wazza) Warren. Wazza is from part time Coverband One Hard Nut. If this isn't the best drummer in Melbourne, he would be close. His awe-inspiring performances, leaves a crowd mesmerised by his drum work, and tricks that have you thinking he is bound to stuff up, but he never does. Even when he toss's one of the drum sticks up high, catches it again in time for the beat of the song. His energy is electric!! I personally can't say enough about Wazza, he is a drum genius, and he makes it look so easy. And a top bloke!!

Bass Guitar, we have Jamie-Lee. Jamie is a music teacher by day, and a rocking bass player at night. As you can imagine from someone who teaches music, he is very smooth, and hardly ever makes a mistake. Jamie comes from Lismore originally, where he played with a very established band named 'The Henchmen'. Although bass isn't known to be a decorated instrument, Jamie makes his awesome bass tones be heard, and in doing so is a very valuable member of the No Dramas Coverband. Jamie also has a keen interest in swing dancing.

Manager. Darren (Dazz) Ellis. Then there is me, the guy who's job it is to get as much exposure for this band as I can, overlook all proceedings, deal with venue managers, and have these guys entertaining crowds four to five nights a week. They deliver the awesome sounds, and I negotiate residency's, private functions, period trials and one off gigs. I along with the lead singer, make the decisions on the direction of the band, with the important input all our band members.
